Department the number of Pandits and Munshis is only three. In our State we have 2 permanent Pandits. The services of a temporary pandit therefore seems to be unnecessary, as an admission that it is necessary would imply that the work in our State is equal to the work in the whole of India.

We cannot judge in these matters by mere proportions. In Madras in addition to the Epigraphist & Assts Epigraphists & these probably deal with inscriptions. In point of published inscriptions the volume of work turned out in Mysore is perhaps more than in Madras, though in regard to quality & critical accuracy the work turned out leaves much to be desired. As Mr Narasimha Char

ENTRY No 4260 from

FILE No. 1170 of 1911-12
SERIAL No. 12

To

R. Narasimhachar, Esquire, M.A., Officer in charge of Archaeological Researches in Mysore,

and

C.S. Balasundaram Iyer, Esquire, B.A., Offg. Secretary to the Govt. of H.H. the Maharaja of Mysore,
General and Revenue Departments.

Sir,

I have the honour to state that the period of the retention in service of the Tamil Pandit in the Archaeological Department expires, in accordance with G.O. No. G 6793-4/G.M 40-09-13 dated 24th June 1910, at the end of June 1912

2. The Tamil work of the Department has turned out to be considerably more than what was expected it would be some years ago. During my recent tour in the Mysore District, nearly 70 new Tamil inscriptions were found in parts of Seringapatam, Malvalli and T. Narsipur Talugs only, and I have no doubt that a complete survey of this District alone will disclose many more epigraphs incised in this language. The same is, more or less, the case with the other Districts also. Further, the published Tamil records of the Mysore District, which are mostly incorrect and incomplete, have to be corrected by a comparison with the originals and transliterated for the proposed revised edition. There is thus enough Tamil work in the Department to occupy a permanent hand.

3. I therefore request that the present Tamil Pandit, who has had considerable experience of the work, may be retained in service for at least a few years more.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

your most obedient servant,

R. Narasimhachar

Officer in charge of Archl. Researches

in Mysore.
